The Word of the Laird

Today's passage from Mark's Gospel introduces us to what the scripture scholars refer to as the section on breads. With the reference about the disciples not being able to eat, this will then lead to the two episodes where Jesus multiplies bread to feed the crowds, in the first instance five thousand (Mark 6) and in the second instance four thousand (Mark 8).

Along with the feeding of the crowds, we also have the episode of Jesus walking on the water. All of this is Mark portraying Jesus as the new Moses. Moses led the Israelites to the Red Sea where they went through it dry shod. Moses also implored God to send nourishment for the Israelites, which was the manna in the desert.

Let us reflect on the treasure that we have in the Eucharist, where Jesus continues to feed us with His Body and Blood, giving us strength for the journey through life and enabling us to reflect on His generous gift leading to eternal life.

Thanks be to God.

Dear Friends at Sts. Mary & Matthew Faith Community:

Thank you for your continued support of Birthright ministry for pregnant and parenting women. The diapers, wipes, clothing and more that you collected for us will help us to serve those in need.

Our founder, Louise Summerhill, wrote that the "essence of Birthright is love." ...unconditional, non-judgemental love — for any woman who asks for help. And she admonished us: "When a woman has problems that make it difficult, even impossible, for her to bring her child into the world with joy and gladness, when problems arise that are far beyond her capacity to solve, she should be able to trust in the community to surround and support her, to provide her the assistance she needs."

Thank you for being a steadfast part of our community through the years, supporting LIFE.

Sincerely,

Joan Rohr, Executive Director

A NOTE FROM YOUR DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION AND YOUTH MINISTRY:

Dear Church Family,

This weekend we celebrate the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, and the scripture readings relate the importance of “seeking the lost,” that is, reaching out to those in need of healing, hope and love – and you know what? That’s pretty much all of us!

Our first reading from the prophet Jeremiah, begins with the imagery of shepherds leading their sheep – or in this case, misleading them. “Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture...You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them.” (Jer 23:1, 2a) While this seems a stern warning, it evolves to one of hopefulness: “I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD.” (Jer 23:4) Jeremiah is prophesizing the coming of Jesus, “This is the name they give him: ‘The LORD our justice.’” OUR justice. Jesus was sent to teach US – all of us, the ways of love – enabling us to go out and share the good news, and in doing that we are (at times) called to fight for what is right. We fight with justice – for justice and peace, as we are called to do.

This week we also will pray together the familiar 23rd psalm, “The Lord is my Shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.” We hear this, and pray this passage often, but do we really get it? With God we have EVERYTHING we need. With God we are graced with rest and peace. This psalm, often used at funeral liturgies, describes the peace we seek, so needed at times of loss. Then as disciples, we too share that peace of Christ with all we encounter. Even if we walk through the dark valley, we don’t need to fear because GOD is with us, giving us courage to move forward in goodness and kindness.

Our second reading from St Paul’s Letter to the Ephesians, reiterates the message of Christ’s peace. “In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For HE IS OUR PEACE...He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.” (Eph 2: 13-14a, 17)

This week’s gospel passage from St. Mark is short but in it we receive much. It is marked with hope and peace. We again hear about the apostles of Jesus (who by this time have been out preaching the good news themselves) as they “reported all they had done and taught.” (Mk 6:30) And what does Jesus do? “He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” (Mk 6:31) Our lives are hurried, creating in us a sense of urgency that can distract us from what we truly need. Yet here Jesus prompts us to take some time for ourselves to create personal peace. After all, we cannot share God’s peace with others if we don’t feel it ourselves. Then Jesus, upon seeing the huge crowd that had gathered, “was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.” This is so important because Jesus is showing us HOW we share His message. We teach, and we do that by listening to those that are often silenced. We share the peace of Christ simply through our words and actions. We take time away to feel God’s peace in our hearts so that others will feel it too. That is why we are called to share this message because, quite simply, it is all we ever really need to know.

Blessings & Love, Jeanette
